BERGEN

The Gateway to the Fjords of Norway

The city of Bergen was founded on an old Viking settlement in the year 1070, and has a proud history and many interesting cultural monuments. Today Bergen has more than 270 000 inhabitants. The city is famous for its exciting mixture of old and new architecture, its charm and atmosphere. Bergen is surrounded by one of the world's most spectacular tourist attractions - the Norwegian Fjords, which are included on UNESCO's World Heritage List. Bryggen (the Wharf) in Bergen is also listed on UNESCO's World Heritage List, and the city is a designated World Heritage City. Bergen is a popular cruise destination and the leading cruise port in Norway.

ATTRACTIONS/ EXCURSIONS

Bryggen - The World Heritage Site

Bryggen is one of Bergen's and Norway's main attractions! The very first buildings in Bergen were situated at Bryggen, which has been a vibrant and important area of the city for many centuries. This Hanseatic Wharf, a maze of wooden buildings, attracts visitors from all over the world and acts as a landmark in the city centre. Bergen is part of our common heritage and has a place on UNESCO's World Heritage List, and the city of Bergen is a designated World Heritage City.

Mt. Fløyen - An iconic attraction

Fløibanen funicular takes you to the top of Mt. Fløyen, 320 m.a.s.l. Magnificent views of Bergen from the spacious plateau. Mt. Fløyen is well suited for outdoor activities, such as hiking, jogging and mountain biking. Guided tours, zipline-park and mountain bike rental. Mt. Fløyen has restaurant, great children's play area and Fløistuen shop and shelter. floyen.no

Bergen Aquarium

At Bergen Aquarium, children and adults alike can see, touch, read about and follow the animals and aquarium keepers at close range. You can watch shows and feedings, and see how fish and animals act when in their element. Biologen Akvariet is a brasserie offering proper food made with proper ingredients. akvariet.no

Ulriken 643 - Ulriken Cable Car

Ulriken Cable Car takes you to the highest of Bergen's famous 'Seven Mountains', to a spectacular scenery and mountain terrain 643 m.a.s.l. From the summit, you can enjoy magnificent views of Bergen and the surrounding area. Tours start 30 m from the Fish Market and take roughly 2 hours. Norway's fastest zipline at the top. ulriken643.no

Edvard Grieg Museum - Troidhaugen

Troidhaugen was the home of Norway's most famous composer Edvard Grieg (1843-1907). He lived here for 22 years and composed many of his best-known works in the little garden hut. The garden includes a modern concert hall which accommodates 200 and is a venue for concerts and chamber music. From May to September, enjoy daily half-hour lunchtime concerts. Intimate, private concerts can be held in his old living room for up to 40 persons, played by pianists on Grieg's old piano. griegmuseum.no

KODE - the Art Museums of Bergen

KODE has an extensive collection of art and design. The museum fills four buildings in the centre of the city. You can experience masterpieces by Edvard Munch, Nikolai Astrup, Pablo Picasso, Paul Klee and J. C. Dahl, visit the unique exhibition "the Silver Treasure", admire handicrafts and designs from the last five hundred years, or experience some of the temporary exhibitions. kodebergen.no

Fish Market

The Fish Market in Bergen is one of Norway's most visited outdoor markets and has a charming location in the heart of the city. The Fish Market also sells fruit, vegetables and souvenirs.

Hanseatic Museum and Schøtstuene

One of the oldest and best preserved wooden buildings in Bergen, and the only one with original interiors from the Hanseatic period. The "Schøtstuene" show the assembly rooms and kitchen used by the Hanseatic merchants.

Bryggens Museum - Bergen City Museum

Bryggens Museum display findings of the archaeological excavations of Bryggen from 1955 and contains the foundations of the oldest buildings in Bergen.

Old Bergen Museum - Bergen City Museum

The open-air Old Bergen Museum is a reconstructed small town consisting of around 50 wooden houses dating from the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries, most of which originate from Bergen city centre, for instance a bakery, dentist's, photographer's, shopkeeper's etc.

Lysøen Island and Ole Bull's Villa

The villa on Lysøen was built in 1873 as a summer residence for the Norwegian composer and violin virtuoso Ole Bull.

Bergenshus Fortress - The Håkon's Hall and the Rosenkrantz Tower

The Håkon's Hall and Rosenkrantz Tower are situated in one of the oldest and best preserved fortresses in Norway. The Håkon's Hall is 750 years old, and was built by King Håkon Håkonson as a royal residence and banquet hall. The tower was built in the 1560s by the governor of Bergen Castle (Bergenshus), Erik Rosenkrantz, and served as a combined residence and fortified tower.

Arven Économusée

The silver factory Arven is situated in a historic setting, between St. Mary's Church and Bergenshus Fortress. The silver factory has for nearly 150 years had its production in the centre of Bergen, and is now opening the doors of this traditional workshop to the public.

Fantoft Stave Church

The old Stave Church at Fantoft, originally built in Fortun in Sogn in 1150, was moved to Fantoft in 1883. It burnt down in 1992, and has been rebuilt just as it was before the fire.

Magic Ice

This is a wondrous winter wonderland constructed from several tons of ice. The ice bar is the work of world renowned ice carvers, they re-craft the bar several times every year. The ice gallery is the hottest place to cool down!

Leprosy Museum - Bergen City Museum

Between 1850 and 1900 Bergen had three hospitals for leprosy patients and the largest concentration of patients in Europe. The city's oldest leprosy hospital, St. George's Hospital, is a monument to thousands of personal tragedies.

Sport and leisure activities

The fact that Bergen is located in one of the world's most scenic areas means that there is a wide range of activities for adults and children alike. You can fish, golf, hike, bike, dive, climb and also do rafting, ocean kayaking and segways. And if you prefer an indoor life, there is plenty to do as well.
